this is our history

founded in 2014 by richard lovett, lovett | co is a cape town-based joinery company specialising in the manufacture of kitchen, bedroom and bathroom cabinets. with a brand that is sleek and classy, it exudes quality and attention to detail, which are closely linked to richard's personal brand as he is renowned for his passion for woodwork and precision customer service in the greater cape town area.

our vision

the lovett | co brand aims to become the most sought-after and recommended cabinet professionals, taking its clients on a journey from the initial meeting, during installation and all the way to final sign-off.

our goals

to operate sustainably and efficiently.

our mission

as an intimate and hands-on company, lovett | co wants to build a rapport with its clientele, while making a conscious effort to improve its environmental footprint, support local commerce and upskill personnel.
